ATLANTA

Thursday Morning, Dec. 10, 1874

To Mail Subscribers of the Constitution.

The postage law of the last session of congress, while largely reducing the rates of newspaper postage, left all mail after

January 1, 1875, subject to a tax at the rate of $1.00 per pound.

The Daily, and all other papers in Atlanta, will be taxed at the rate of one dollar per pound, and in remittances to the office it will be necessary to add to the postage the sum of one dollar.

The postage will be paid by subscribers to the Postmaster at the rate of $1.00 per pound, or at the Daily, and 25

cents per year on the Weekly.

Hereafter, all mail will be taxed at the place of mailing. It will therefore become necessary for publishers to add to the postage the sum of one dollar.

The postage will be paid by subscribers to the Postmaster at the rate of $1.00 per pound, or at the Daily, and 25

cents per year on the Weekly.

Subscribers will pay at the office

at the rate of $1.00 per pound.

And in all cases where subscribers are delinquent, we will be compelled to erase their names, as we cannot afford to pay postage at all, much less for delays in payment.

circus will be in town Saturday evening.

Business Prospects
On last Saturday the bill filed by the Board of police commissioners, beg-leaf to stand up, and through the Court of Common Pleas, to estimate the expenses of the several officers, and men
the board deemed necessary for the full expedition of their duty, and to pay the expenses and pay for the same during the year 1875. These estimates are based upon the fact that while our recommendations will give greater efficiency to the force, the expenditure will fall short of those for the present year 1874.

We recommend the list of officers and men
which we have submitted for appointment:

Officer Police Commissioners, 1

expedition of their duty, and to pay the
expenses and pay for the same during the year 1875. These estimates are based upon the fact that while our recommendations will give greater efficiency to the force, the expenditure will fall short of those for the
present year 1874.

Officer Police Commissioners, 1

To the Chairman and Gentleman of the Solaray Committee.

The board of police commissioners beg leave to stand up, and through the Court of Common Pleas, to estimate the expenses of the several officers, and men
the board deemed necessary for the full
expedition of their duty, and to pay the
expenses and pay for the same during the year 1875. These estimates are based upon the fact that while our recommendations will give greater efficiency to the force, the expenditure will fall short of those for the
present year 1874.

We recommend the list of officers and men
which we have submitted for appointment:

THE LAST.
The last kiss—
When his lips will give it?
The last joy—
What best heart will live it?
The last smile—
What bright eyes will see that?
The last kiss—
What poor soul will see?
The last pang—
What sad heart will know it?
The last smile—
What fair face will show it?
The last book—
What great minds will find it?
The last fault—
Who will pass that blindly?
The last hope—
Fancy drops the curtain?
Of that last
Only the tears remain;—
The last act,
This will be a true man's;
The last word—
That will save us.

Mrs. Sharon is baptized "The Lily of Poverty Flat."

Mark Twain has made over two thousand dollars already with his "Gilded Age."

Water will find its level, and whisky—that is a great leveler, too.

The name "Kalaakaua," king of the Sandwich Islands, is pronounced Kollok-kowah.

It isn't so much trouble tew git rich at the expense of the poor.

Edwin Booth, it is announced, will commence his first engagement this season in Chicago on the 14th inst.

Sharon, of Nevada, who gave his daughter a million-dollar wedding gift, has two very attractive unmarried sons.

Acreage in Georgia continually consumes 27,000 acres of bread-rabbits, not counting the Webb ones on toast.

A Maine Bluebird has just supplied twenty-seven children with an eighth step-mother.

King Kalakaua has already arrived at the hotel, and is making his appearance in several different styles.

Paper undergarmen for women have struck the Pacific coast from Japan, and are likely to soon make their appearance that way.

Lovers of peace and quiet in Detroit are referring to the street boys' discovery that certain non-perishable commodities cost ten cents a piece.

The Paris police has forbidden the use of certain straws to people with velocipedes, and commanded that in all others they must carry bells by day like steleghs, and a lantern at night.

—A young woman, her lover's family, who are very poor, a Montreal heiress was married the other day in a plain Swiss muslin costing $20, while her underclothing was valued at $9.

They are going to try to put a stop to it, so the young man's side will add a "soothing syrup" for infants. Physicians assert that more babies are killed by these concoctions than by diseases.

The favorite conundrum in Huntington, Tenn., is "Why is this town like heaven?" The answer is, "Because in it there is no hell." Heaven is in marriage." There has not been a marriage in town for over two years.

About the maddest woman in America lives in Brattleboro, Vt., and she has had a hard time of it, and took her feet out from under her in such a way that she sat down on the sled and was carried all right to the foot of the hill.

—The home of a girl so beautiful that her life is considered too precious to be sacrificed, is subjected too, caused by the fact that no man young or old can see her without becoming her half-crazed slave.

Think out all possible ways of enlarging your business, and you'll find one which will soonest, most surely, and most largely contribute to that result with the least expense. Is not the answer found in advertising, which while it takes care of the merchant, also leaves him free to attend to all who are moved to do business with him?

—A "marriage in haste" took place in Riverdale Village, L. I., on Friday evening last. A domestic in a family, residing on Giffing Avenue, went out on an evening walk with a young man. Meeting a male acquaintance the marriage of a friend was spoken of, when she said: "Let's get married." He immediately consented to the proposition, they went to the parson without further preliminaries, and they were led directly "on the spot."

The late Eliza Robinson, who died last month in Parkers, Pa., bequeathed $10,000 to the widow of the different members of his household in a certain manner, and accompanied the legacies with a proviso that if any of the children should "grumble" at this division, he would be entitled to the portion of that one should be distributed in equal shares among the others. Not "grumble" has been heard.
